RELEASE

ATARI TO BRING 'ACE COMBAT™ 6: FIRES OF LIBERATION' AND 'ETERNAL SONATA™' TO PAL TERRITORIES

- Atari Secures Deal with NAMCO BANDAI Games to Distribute Highly Anticipated Xbox 360 Titles in Europe and Other PAL Regions -

LYON, FRANCE – 21 June 2007 – Atari today announced the forthcoming release of two highly anticipated titles for the Xbox 360™ video game and entertainment system from Microsoft. Published by NAMCO BANDAI Games Europe and distributed in the PAL territories by Atari, flight action title Ace Combat 6: Fires of Liberation and role-playing game Eternal Sonata are scheduled for release this coming autumn.

“The further expansion of our line up with Namco Bandai Games is the fruit of the excellent quality of their games and the performance of our European distribution network,” said Jean-Michel Perbet, President, Atari Europe. “These two titles are superb additions to our growing product portfolio as Atari pushes ahead with renewed confidence.”

The renowned Ace Combat series of video games is the undisputed king of the virtual skies. Ace Combat 6: Fires of Liberation brings new heights of intense aerial combat to players. With online play for the first time using Xbox Live®, players can now experience Ace Combat on a massive worldwide scale with a deep, action-packed multiplayer experience.

Bringing the long-awaited authentic Japanese role-playing experience to European gamers for the first time, Eternal Sonata takes full advantage of the Xbox 360 with its gorgeous graphics, 3D character models, and groundbreaking battle system. With a host of technically advanced and unique features alongside an enchanting and original storyline, Eternal Sonata will set new standards for RPG gaming.
