Lyon – France, July 25, 2007 – Infogrames Entertainment today reports the communication of its American subsidiary Atari, Inc.

On July 19, 2007, Deloitte & Touche LLP orally informed the Chairman of our Audit Committee that Deloitte & Touche LLP would decline to stand for re-election as the Company's independent accountant and that the cessation of the auditor/client relationship would become effective upon completion of Deloitte's audit and issuance of its report on the Company's March 31, 2007 financial statements (Form 10K).

Infogrames Entertainment stresses that this decision has no consequence on the mandate of Deloitte France as auditors of the group in connection with the annual and consolidated results. The mandate of Deloitte in France will expire in 2011.

Atari Inc specifies that the reports of Deloitte on the financial statements for the past two fiscal years contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to audit scope or accounting principle, other than the additional paragraph regarding the Company's uncertainty to continue as a "going concern" contained therein.

Prior to July 19, 2007, the Atari Inc Audit Committee had sought and received proposals from other independent registered public accounting firms to audit our financial statements for the year ending March 31, 2008. The audit committee expects to be able to select a new accounting firm by or shortly after July 31, 2007;
